

Announcer Will Tell Plays Thanksgiving Day

FRED WESTERVELT IS TO ANNOUNCE PLAYS THANKSGIVING DAY

American League Umpire Will Tell Crowds Each Play Made When Virginia and Carolina Clash in Annual Battle at Broad Street Park Thursday.

BY GUS MALBERT.

Fred Westervelt has been engaged as official announcer for the game to be played Thursday between the University of Virginia and the University of North Carolina—for years regarded as the football classic of this immediate section. This move was made by Richard M. Carington, local representative of the University of Virginia, and the man in charge of the arrangements for the big affair of Thursday afternoon.

No longer will Johnny Swain and Mary Love have to sit in ignorance of what is actually going on among the twenty-two huskies engaged in upholding the traditions of their respective states on the gridiron. Fred Westervelt, whose deep bass has driven many fractious ball players to the many frictions of the football field, will tell to the assembled multitudes all of the details of the game. Every long run, every penalty inflicted, every substitute entering the game, every minute of time taken out for injuries or for whatever purpose, every touchdown scored, every goal kicked or missed, every drop kick and every goal from field, will be explained by the announcer, giving the distances gained, together with the names of the men taking part.

Under these circumstances even the person ignorant of the finer points of the game, but who may be interested

JOCKEY TEAHAN HAS REGULAR FIELD DAY

Rides Three Mounts to Victory and Nearly Captures Two More—Only One Outsider Manages to Get Race.

Should Run Well To-Day

First race—Old Coin, Pikes Peak, Ancon.
Second race—Tarts, Scallawag, Genesta.
Third race—Rose Queen, Lawton, Wiggins.
Fourth race—Caugh Hill, Sebago, Flying Yankee.
Fifth race—Hempstead, Lad of Langdon, Nimbus.
Sixth race—Master Jim, Lord Elam, Accord.
Seventh race—Blackford, Idleweiss, Col. Cook.

Norfolk, Va., November 25.—Jockey Teahan's sensational riding was the feature of to-day's card at the Jamestown Jockey Club track. He had five mounts, won three races, and was beaten a head for three more in two. He brought Yenghee, a two-year-old, under the wire a winner by two lengths in a seven furlong event. He next rode Miss Moments to victory, and wound up the day by taking the final race on the card with Annie Sellers, beating Emily Lee by a head at the wire. Emily Lee had the race won up to the last quarter. She was in the lead by half a head when she passed the grandstand, but Annie Sellers was bearing down on her, and Teahan was urging his mount on and using the whip. He won by half a head, and when he rode back to the judges' stand the crowd applauded.

Guy Fisher won the owners' handicap, for all ages. He was a prohibitive favorite, but the distance, a mile and a sixteenth, just suited him, and he won easily over Lochiel and Merry Lad. Dipper, the only real outsider to win to-day, was ridden by Jockey Ambrose, and he brought his mount from well in the rear to the front in the far turn.

Jack Denman put another race under his belt to-day when he defeated a large field of ordinary platers, including Premier and Berkeley.

The Jamestown track has asked for dates for its spring meeting. Charleston, S. C., has asked for a license for sixty days, but it is highly probable that the New York Jockey Club will not give the South Carolina city more than fifty days of racing. The meeting in Norfolk will probably open April 1 and continue up to and including April 25.

PETERSBURG WILL ATTEND

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Petersburg, Va., November 25.—Petersburg will be represented at the meeting of the directors of the Virginia League, to be held in Portsmouth tomorrow. The meeting, it is expected, will be an interesting one. The question as to the legality of dropping the Lynchburg team last season will be one of the matters to be considered.

LYNCHBURG IS STILL FIGHTING

Hillmen Want Virginia League Franchise, and Present Their Claims Through Grim.

Lynchburg, Va., November 25.—John J. Grim, the Cincinnati count, left this afternoon for Richmond, where he expects tonight to have a conference with W. B. Pradley, of the Richmond team, and to-morrow morning he goes to Portsmouth to be around when the magnates are in their annual meeting. Lynchburg is fighting for a franchise for 1913 for Lynchburg, but he does not expect much consideration from the magnates. He expects the magnates, however, on the part of the meeting that will give Grim's request mature deliberation. Just as sure as they turn him down an appeal will go by wire to Secretary Farrell, and then comes the fun.

Grim, declared to-day that he is surprised at the interest shown in baseball since he let it be known that he intended to make a fight for the readmission of Lynchburg. Since then he has been besieged by fans who are willing to take stock in the team and to buy season tickets early in the spring.

The question of back salaries for the players will get consideration when the time comes for this, and the league is not yet out of the woods in this, despite the fact that the back pay has been made a lien on the Lynchburg territory. If the league does not have to pay it, the salaries Lynchburg will, and that will end that.

CRACK DRIVERS TO BURN UP THE WIND

B. st There Is in Auto Races Will Be Witnessed at State Fair Track Friday and Saturday.

All is in readiness at the State Fair Grounds for the professional automobile races, which will be held on the mile track Friday and Saturday. Spectators will not have to bother with tickets for the amphitheatre, for the one-price admission includes the grandstand.

The drivers are here, and are coming. Minker and Gosnell, who will drive the Kline racers, are quartered in the city, and Barber, the Warren driver, is expected by to-morrow night. Spencer Wishart is expected to make his appearance to-day, and Dave Lewis and Stuts company, are scheduled to arrive early to-morrow. Louis Disbrow is expected hourly, and when all the drivers of international fame assemble at the State Fair Grounds for their preliminary spurs, to get acquainted with the track, there will be more professional drivers here than Richmond has ever claimed at one time before.

Every day the various cars that will be used in the races are being tried out—the same as the race horses are practiced a little every day. Nikrent, the driver who arrived Saturday, has been sending his Case "Bullet" around the mile oval at lightning speed—under a minute and five seconds.

As soon as Wishart arrives he will speed up his Mercer, and this, with "Jimmy" and "Jimmy, Jr.," skimming around the track under the careful driving of Minker and Gosnell, will afford preliminary events of interest to many spectators.

Several of the racing cars will be seen in the Wilson parade to-night, and the noted drivers will be at the wheels. They will be sent in to add interest to the parade, and incidentally to draw attention to the coming events.

This afternoon, at the Richmond Automobile Club, which has headquarters at the Jefferson Hotel, the advance sale of tickets will go on. The Richmond Automobile Club will extend formal invitations to Governor Mann and Mayor Ainslie to-day, and city officials who have aided the club in formulating ing its plans for the big event will not be overlooked.

The State Fair Grounds will bear a gala appearance on Friday and Saturday, during the two days' racing meet. The boxes will be profusely decorated, especially those to be occupied by the State's executive and the city's Mayor and other members of the State and city government.

Music will be a feature of the race meet. It will be furnished by Kess-nich's Municipal Band between the various events.

Hundreds of people who will be attracted to Richmond by the Virginia-Carolina football game Thursday will remain to see the big racing event, and the several railroads will run special trains on Friday and Saturday to accommodate the thousands who are coming to see the "dare-devils" contest for the various purses.

There will be several runs contested for by the members of the Richmond Automobile Club. All events will be under the rules and regulations of the Automobile Association of America.

Two of the cars entered by Disbrow and Nikrent are world's record holders, and Richmond will have the honor of first presenting them to Southeastern section of the automobile world. Disbrow and Nikrent have done all their racing in the West, Barber in the Middle West, while Wishart, Minker, Gosnell, Lewis and Parkinson have done all theirs in the East. They will meet on neutral ground in Richmond for the first time, and each is anxious to win the honors of the meet. Besides, the city of Richmond has offered a special prize of $250 for the driver making the best showing in the races, and this is an extra inducement for every one to put forward every effort to win.

The racing committee is still in search of a car for Louis Meneghetti, the crack Italian driver, thrice victorious over "Wild Bob" Burman, the renowned driver of Barney Oldfield's old car. If Meneghetti gets into the races with his old Benz racer, Richmond is going to see some hair-raising finishes, for the Italian declares he will burn the track up.

M'GUIRE'S LOSES TO HAMPTONIANS

Local Prep School No Match for Sturdy Warriors of Sealand.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Hampton, Va., November 25.—Executing the forward pass to the advantage of the visitors and putting up the classiest game seen here in years, the football eleven of the Hampton High School overcame the McGuire School, of Richmond, on the New Park gridiron, this afternoon by the count of 54 to 8. The visitors never had a look in for the game, and only during the contest did it look like McGuire would even score.

Hampton started the scoring in the early part of the initial quarter and kept it up until the battle ended. Dixon, Engelbert and Betschey starred for the locals, while Whitting did some clever kicking. McGuire is a much better team than the Hamptonians, but the locals showed better training. Hampton High School has defeated all the high schools and preps in Tidewater Virginia, and it is the intention to challenge the winner of the game between Lynchburg and John Marshall next Wednesday to play for the championship. McGuire will contend that it is the champion, unless the winner of Wednesday's game defeats the locals. The visitors returned to Richmond to-night.

Notice to the Bowlers.

All tenpin bowlers in Richmond who wish to take part in the new Commercial League, now being organized at the Newport Allys, will please send in their names to the manager at the Allys not later than Saturday night, November 26. The new Commercial League will consist of six strong teams picked from some of the best bowlers in the city, and we doubt will give the Newport League a hard fight for next season.

CAROLINA A. & M. ALMOST READY

Light Work Will Mark Course of Coaches Until Thursday's Struggle.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] West Raleigh, N. C., November 25.—Following a week of hard practice, including about a half-hour's scrimmage each afternoon, the A. & M. football team had a hard scrimmage practice with the scrubs Saturday afternoon. This week will be spent in light practice to keep the team in condition to go into the game on Thursday against Washington and Lee. In the scrimmage Saturday, the varsity lined up against the scrubs, and had little trouble in making a touchdown whenever they cared to do so. McHenry, the 190-pound fullback, hits the line hard, and always made at least five yards through the line whenever he was given the ball. Jeffrey, at half back, gave a good exhibition of broken field running, sometimes going through the whole scrub team for large gains. Hargrove is also in good condition and hits the line hard. Trust, a new man who the coach is developing in a halfback, is showing up very well, being very fast. Anthony fullback, who has been laid up for the past month with a broken shoulder, was out again Friday, going through signal practice, and will very probably be in part of the game Thursday.

Look for Runaway Bay.

The police yesterday were asked to institute a search for Abe Berman, twelve years old, of 213 North Nineteenth Street, who disappeared from his home last Friday. He is believed to have run away with a boy by the name of Kain, whose home is said to be in Petersburg.
